

Graphic design business opens at county airport

Written by Staff Reports

Tuesday, 31 January 2012 11:58 -

LOWER TOWNSHIP – Next door to the recently-opened Cape May Brewery at the Cape May Airport on Breakwater Road, another new business has recently opened its doors.

Owner Carl Suit says House of Print at 1288 Hornet Road in the airport offers production for t-shirts, stickers, murals, banners, posters and vehicle wraps, as well as helping design the product in house.

“We can do pretty much anything you can imagine, and make it look better than you thought possible,” Suit states in material on the new business.

Along with his wife, Lauren, Suit hosted a grand opening on Jan. 28 at the print shop, featuring beer from the next-door neighbors and food from Cape May Barbecue and Catering.

“It isn’t everyone that gets the chance to go to work and do what they love,” Suit said. “I’m thankful for the opportunity to work with local businesses and artists and help them be successful.”

Suit has a degree in communication arts and graphic design from Ramapo College of New Jersey, and has worked in graphic design for 10 years.

The office hours are 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Monday through Friday. For more information, call 609-435-5505 or email info@cmchop.com.