EGG HARBOR TOWNSHIP – The Atlantic County crime rate decreased by 7 percent in 2011 from 2010, according to the annual State Police Uniform Crime Report released Friday, Dec. 14.

The 233-page report analyzes crime across the state and compares year-to-year rates in several categories including age, sex, municipality and level of violence.

The report provides a crime snapshot of each of the state's counties and municipalities and indicates trends that help law enforcement determine where it needs to deploy its resources.

There were 10,801 Crime Index offenses committed in Atlantic County in 2011, according to the report.

Violent crimes decreased 11 percent, giving the county an average crime rate of 39.3 victims for every 1,000 permanent residents.

There were 22 murders in Atlantic County in 2011, the same as 2010.

Rape increased from 54 in 2010 to 57 in 2011, and burglaries also increased, from 2,099 in 2010 to 2,144 in 2011, the report said.

However, robbery decreased from 716 in 2010 to 603 in 2011 and aggravated assault dropped from 767 in 2010 to 712 in 2011.

There were 15,022 arrests, or 41 per day, in 2011 in Atlantic County, a slight decrease from a year earlier.
