

Township, county offices closed in observance of Veterans Day

Written by Staff Reports

Sunday, November 11, 2012 10:28 am

Egg Harbor Township municipal offices and the township's Community Center will be closed Monday, November 12 in observance of Veterans Day.

Atlantic County government offices will be closed as well. Offices will reopen on Tuesday with the exception of the Brigantine branch of the Atlantic County library system which remains closed until further notice for remediation of storm damages. Patrons of the Brigantine branch are welcome at any of the library system's additional nine branches. For locations and hours visit www.atlanticlibrary.org.